RELAIS AND CHÂTEAUX LUXURY AT ITS FINEST IN A LAND OF CONTRAST

Five of the world's finest lodges in one remarkable corner of the globe

A NEW ZEALAND experience is unlike anything else on the planet. With dramatic, rugged landscapes giving away to gentle, ever-lasting horizons and tranquil settings, luxury in New Zealand is truly unique.

As the country's wild, untamed beauty meets modern comfort, you can expect to have your breathe both taken away and restored within a moment.

Think of it as your own personal playground, where experiences can be tailored to your individual tastes and needs. Where locals take the time to show you the little things, to share their story, to make you part of the "kiwi" family. Where you can savour some of the world's best food, wine and produce right at the source.

Spend a day soaring above migrating whales in a helicopter or fishing in hidden streams teeming with plump trout, before spending the next, sailing in an archipelago of subtropical islands or flying through dramatic fjords.

Afterwards, linger in the sumptuous comfort of New Zealand's best lodges. It might be The Lodge at Kauri Cliffs, perched on the edge of the Pacific; Huka Lodge, where the lawns sweep down to the Waikato River; Matakauri Lodge, with its stunning vistas of Lake Wakatipu; The Farm at Cape Kidnappers, where rolling farmland meets ocean grandeur; or historic Otahuna Lodge, where an extinct volcano forms the backdrop to its glorious gardens.

With so much to see, why not explore and immerse yourself in everything that this remarkable part of the world has to offer?
